

EVOO NEWS

MARCH 2019

What beauty results when snow comes to the beach!

Dear Friends of EVOO:

Once again we are inviting your return to our table! Please check out our schedule.

We also want to introduce you to the latest Cannon Beach festival coming up this Mother's Day weekend, May 10, 11, 12. It is called North Coast Culinary Fest, a celebration of James Beard in Cannon Beach.

The entire weekend is dedicated to great culinary experiences!

Friday night, our participation includes Chef Bob and a James Beard award-winning chef together cooking our DINNER SHOW. More to come on that! The main event is Saturday night, May 11, bringing together several North coast chefs including Bob & Lenore, who will collaborate to create your dinner at the Surf Sand ballroom. Then Sunday, Mother's Day, you may take Mom to brunch, at EVOO, too. The common theme on Sunday is "biscuits," a James Beard favorite!

Throughout the weekend, there will be small workshops for you to get to know chefs and artisan producers, and learn more about such topics as cheese production, mushroom foraging, and chocolate. EVOO is hosting a workshop by "Communi-tea," a local (yes, local) tea plantation owner on the coast.

In addition, without interfering with any of the other events planned, guests may enjoy a Sparkling wine reception while visiting the former cottage where, as a boy, James Beard spent every summer. Some of the ticket sales for the festival goes to support the culinary arts program at Seaside High School, the very program in which JB once taught.
